The Commodore's Message

No message from the Commodore but we hear that he is on the mend. Best wishes from the club and we are looking forward to seeing you soon.

Wade

Social

The Royal Coachman is tentatively booked for our Christmas Party. Costs will be kept to $20.00 per person with the club picking up the coats above that amount.

The January meetin will include a 'PIZZA NIGHT' with no other program.

Racing Report:

The Fall Fracas or more accurately for this year the "Fall Farce" was held on Oct 2 & 3. There were four boats out and we did manage to get only one race out of a scheduled six completed. In the light winds Bodacaus easily showed the rest of the fleet the way to the finish line finishing some 20 minutes ahead of 2nd place Katana. Windsong finished third and Moderation fourth. There was a great turnout at the after race social to enjoy a BBQ and potluck.

Cruising

The cruising season is winding down for those without a good bimeny and a heating system. For me that means taking off all the above board equipment which is subject to degradation due to exposure to the weather. I also strip out cushions and anything, which is better, kept dry than damp as the November winds and rain will surely expose a leak here and there.

It is now time to settle into our winter schedule of meetings including a special presentation on wine making at our regular October meeting. The AGM follows in November affording all members the opportunity to let their names stand for positions on the executive.

Ladies Luncheon

Next Ladies Luncheon is at the Salmon Point Pub, Tues. Nov. 2 at 1130 hrs.

Men's Luncheon

Programs

The guest speaker for October's meetin will be Willow Point Wines' Proprietor, Brian Ross, to discuss techniques for wine-tasting, and hints and helps for home wine makers. Considering the number of amateur wine makers in the club, this should be a topic of great interest.
