How to Handle A Husband at Sea.

Pipe him aboard when you set sail
Laugh with joy when it blows a gale
Never admit to mal de mer
Encourage the wind to ruin your hair
Babble about the sea's mystique
Hose the deck and scrub the teak
Batten hatches and stow the gear
Heat the coffee and ice the beer

Clean the bilges and scrape the brine
Haul the anchor and coil the line
Hang each fender, reef the sail
Lower the tender, walk the rail
Hop to it lass, when you're aboard
And maybe as a small reward
When you've scrubbed the deck and polished the chrome
Hell let you spend next weekend at home
